53 TO 63 PARE ROW, NEW YORK. TUESDAY EVENING, DEC. 27.

BUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD (Including Postage):

Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second

MADISON AVE.

BROOKLYN-309 WARRINGTON ST.

PHILADELPHIA, PA.—LEDDER BUILDING, 112

BOUTH STR. WASHINGTON-610 14TH ST.

THE WORLD'S record for November shows the total number of papers printed to have

11,767,090, which number is a gain

1,965,880

WORLDS for November, 1892, over November, 1891. This is an average daily gain of 65.529.

The daily average of WORLDS printed during November was 392,236, and the daily average of WORLDS printed for the first eleven months of 1802 has been 381,761.

WORLD Advertisements for November, 1892, numbered 68,749, s month's record unap-proached; by any other newspaper.

take a year's rest.

Zero and the mercury have a mere call

The ghost of Christmas Past will now ing acquaintance. Premonitory symptoms of baseball are only two months away.

What they say about the Madison Avcnue Bridge in Harlem: See that hump!

blessed fruit on those seven Christmas appearance among the clergy? Has not

Among the New Year calls should be an early call-down for the brutal Reading Combine.

What's the use of doing the Sullivan-Corbett affair all over again, and at long Coney Island.

Consolidation of New York and Brook lyn is a question not only of the hour but of great moment.

The air still maintains its nipping eagerness. And continues to drive many a man to an eager nippingness.

A little official tact, equitably distributed among New York's various municipal beheld Nugara in all its beauty wno has boards, would fill a want severely felt.

It is safe to say that the Fire Depart-week.

Would that it were the coal barons, in.

In certain districts in Russia peasants indescribable in its weird grandeur. are "dying like flies" from cold and In the sunshine the face of the rocks starvation. In others, bundreds are per- seems to glutter with myriads of brilliant ishing from cholers. ALEXANDER III. is gems, the colors changing with every Czar of a great deal of wretchedness.

caused a quarantine there. But the sym. ward from the beining depths. In the pathies of the people for their much. moonlight the scene is changed, and a afflicted President are not barred out. pale, ghostlike look comes over the rocks Nor the sincere hope that sorrow's fur. the icicles and the frozen mountains. ther reign at the Executive Mansion may be very light and brief.

Encouraged doubtless by the happy outcome of the Clemenceau-Delourade affair, M. Andrigux makes duellistic overtures to M. Ribor. So strong is the force of habit that, even in the midst of its own

Called to quell a holiday disturbance, a ment for defrauding a woman out of Pittsburg policeman used his club so $4,000, after pleading guilty of larceny effectually on the head of a dying man in the second degree, was enabled to walk ministered from another source, was the Governor's elemency, and to enjoy opreciatively expedited. The officer Christmas with his family. his victim would never appear as a complainant against him.

OUR CHRISTMAS TREES.

Thirty-five thousand pairs of bright have spent two Christmas days in jail. eyes became brighter yesterday as they descriptions.

Vol. 83......No.11,452 of New York, Brooklyn and Jersey City through Executive elemency. been more successful or more largely attended than those of vesterday. Never have so many gifts been distributed in good work.

respect at least, it manifests respect for the wishes of the people and a disposition to accept the verdict of the ballot-box.

No one can doubt that one of the les- is in the right direction. sons of the recent election was a rebuke to prodigal expenditures and a demoralized civil service. As soon as the result of the election was known the President announced the intention of the Administry of the election was known the Administry of the election was known the President announced the intention of the Administry of the election was known the President announced the intention of the Administry of the election work and closes it by working in her own the structure of the loves the adventuress, Miss Eastlake ber of unnecessary Federal employees. those who remain by holding over them more thorough doing. the shield of the civil-service rules.

Of course it would have been better if the civil-service rules had been invoked to learn, in the way of thoroughness, son hope to escape?

ORTHODOX PUGILISM.

Dr. McGLYNN's reconciliation with his Church and his restoration to his priestly functions seem to have given general satisfaction to his co-religionists all over the country. There is no doubt' that public sympathy was largely with Dr. McGLYNN in the controversy that led to his difficulty with the Church, as it always will be with those who are suffi ciently fearless and independent to stand firmly by their convictions of right against a powerful antagonist.

Might not the happy termination of the McGlynn trouble suggest to other re- body seems to be anxious to get some of it, and ligious denominations the wisdom of making an end of the distracting and lamentable dissensions that are disturbing their own bodies? Have there not been of late manifestations of a too wuch addicted to the silver habit, and that pugnacious spirit in many churches and he should include among his New Year resoluof a disposition to make a mountain of backsliding out of every molehill of in-Aren't you glad you helped to put the dependent thought that has made its orthodoxy taken too readily to the hard gloves with which the professional pugilists cheat the laws against prize fighting and knock out their opponents?

Better have peace and good will in the churches, gentlemen, and leave bard knocks to the Carbs of California and

A WORLD'S WONDER.

No country in the world has a natural wonder equal to that of Niagara Falis. In has retained his etrength, and can still wreck a that at least the United States can defy competition.

People come from every part of the world to visit these great Falls. But Summer, when the weather is favorable to pleasure travel. Vet to pleasure travel. naturally their visits are mostly in the to pleasure travel. Yet no person has not seen the Falls in a sharp, frosty, Winter season. The sprny frozen on the ing proved that the term is a misnomer. All of face of the great rocks, the mountains of ice that pile themselves up at the sides si the rate of 250,000 miles an hour. ment horses will feel their oats after New ice that pile themselves up at the sides Year's Day. Rations are too short this of the cataract in all sorts of fantastic formations looking like giants frozen, while at play; the huge glitter. stead of the poor people, who were being ing icicles hanging from every projection. frozen out these biting December days in length; the foam rolling up like steam many of them more than a hundred feet from a monstrous caldron, make a scene motion of the eyes. The great icicles shine like burnished silver. The fosm Scarlet fever in the White House has takes ever-varying hues as it rolls ap-

Every lover of the grand and beautiful in nature ought to see Ningara in the Winter, and the recent sharp frost is said to have clothed the Falls with more than ordinary attractiveness.

THE PARDONING POWER ABUSED. Gov. FLOWER has pardoned another scandal and grief, France continues to offender with rich and influential friends. contribute to the gayety of other nations. Mr. Cumberland G. White, who was recently sentenced to two years' imprisonthat the work of a bullet, previously ad- out of jail a free man yesterday through ' THE CRUST OF SOCIETY."

showed excellent judgment. He got in It is pretended that Mr. WHITE, who his needed exercise with his clubbing was a stock broker and is an intelligent, arm, and at the same time made sure that well educated man, was unjustly convicted. Humbug! He received a light been a man without friends he would

An intelligent, well-connected criminal, gazed with delight at THE EVENING who knows the consequences of his crime World's Christmas trees laden with gifts, when he commits it and is not tempted and thirty-five thousand hearts were made | by want, deserves pardon much less than glad as the little ones bore off with them a man who steals to save his family perwarm articles of clothing and toys of all haps from starvation. There are many Christmas festivals for the poor children not likely to be restored to their families

NO AMATEUR POLICE.

The Board of Police Justices are to hold hibited. nstitution in the three cities. They except where otherwise provided by ex-institution in the three cities. They share with Santa Claus the honors of the day. They will be continued while The This is a proper rule and should be Evenino World by the Board. The recent in diction for the return of safe-keeping of any rejected manuscripts.

The World will not, under any circumstances, hold their responsible for the return of safe-keeping of any rejected manuscripts.

The world will not, under any circumstances, hold their responsible for the return of safe-keeping of any rejected manuscripts.

This is a proper rule and should be Evenino World by the Board. The recent in dictionent of one of the principal agents of Dr. Parkhusst's Society for blackmail and extortion proves the danger of intendiction of the delight not of the little beneficiaries and extortion proves the danger of intendiction of the delight not of the little beneficiaries and extortion proves the danger of intendiction of the three cities.

DEATH-BED RFFORM.

All honor to the Harrison Administration for the readiness with which, in one but of every benevole the readiness with which, in one but of every benevole the fact that vice when the thoroughly realized the fact that vice when the thoroughly strong the state of the same time the state of the first passed by the Board. The recent in the mean time his own are none of Dr. Parkhusst's Society for blackmail and extortion proves the danger of intrustively evil hero, however, preach occasion, the three cities.

This complete when the fact that vice when the thoroughly strong the first that vice when the thoroughly strong the thoroughly strong the fact that vice when the thoroughly strong the fact that vice when the third the fact that vice when the thoroughly strong the thoroughly strong the fact tha tration to extend the civil-service rules inscrutible way upon the structure of the Whitechapel (I mean Chapel), and an old over post-offices and custom-houses, and Madison avenue drawbridge. First she lover dt hers, Oliver St. Aubyn, who is also to reduce expenses by cutting of a num- swells the wooden pavement of the bridge an old friend of his, wants to prevent the so that it can't be travelled upon; then marriage. As Oliver has been the woman's The wicked Democrats have denounced she distorts the structure so that ouce lover he knows that she is not immaculate, the Republicans for defying the will of opened it can't be quite shut; last of all (this is a regular Dr. Parkhurst way of the people by trying to steal Legislatures she extends the distortion so that the acquiring the knowledge), and "it is the and United States Senators after they had draw won't work either way. So she unwritten social law that a good man should been defeated at the ballot-box. Now let shuts off river and roadway transit the play. It is exceedingly clever, in spite of them praise the Republican Administration all together. Man might gather from its uncontrasted pictures, and its dialogue is for turning out of office useless and su- the thoroughness of Nature's undoing brilliant and interesting. perfluous employees and for protecting processes quite a lesson on the wisdom of at the beginning of Mr. Harrison's term, from their Polish contemporaries. By a ing frocks. In one of them, which was cut instead of at its close and after his defeat, cable despatch from Warsaw, it appears and if the idle, worthless scamps who are that brigands who held up a train about now to be turned adrift had not been al. forty miles from that town conscienlowed to feed at the public crib without tiously went through every car, robbing markably well with the part of Oliver St. rendering any public service for three every passenger, and wound up by tak- Aubyn, and almost made up for the shortyears and nine months. The wicked ing the watches from the trainmen. Democrats will say that Mr. Hannison Then, with a courteous adicu to all thing of a stick. Joseph E. Whiting and only wants to keep his creatures in office hands, they plunged into the surround. Harry St. Maur were competent, and and to reduce the patronage of his Demo. ing darkness of night. There is a finish Jane Stuart had little to do, but did it pretcratic successor. But the best of men are and a tone about this performance which misrepresented, and how can Mr. HARRI- is entirely lacking to the exhibitions given by the DALTONS and other supposin America.

St. Petersburg is building a vast crematory in which carrion and other unhealthy substances picked up about the city are to be destroyed. This is a long step in advance of New York. We can learn from Russia at the same time that we send aid to some starving Russians.

SPICED SCISSORINGS.

All After the Filthy Lucre. They are still complaining about the fifthy money that is in circulation. And yet everythe more he gets, the happier he is.

New Year Hint for Uncle Sam. Uncle Sam has at last realized that he has been Some Consolidation Chances. The changes are that Chicago will have the limits before New York will be able to coax Brooklyn into a consolidating mood.

Colombian Colus as Ringers. dollar has only 30 cents worth of silver in it.

As a Columbian souvenir it is open to criticism. out as a sample of flat money it is a ringer. Paderewski Not Shorn of Strength.

Paderewski, like Samson, has lost his bair, ut the Polish plantst, unlike the Hebrew b concert grand with neatness and despatch.

WORLDLINGS.

age of man's life has increased 5 per cent. during the last twenty-five years. There are no fixed stars, the astronomers hav

All the gold in the world, it is said, eq stored in a room 24 feet square and 24 feet

The mortality of the Franco Prussian war of 1870-71 amounted to 250, 000.

VACRANT VERSES.

Alas. He Cannot Find a Wife. Oh, the preity cirl is a winsome pearl.
And her face is tart to see,
But the houlely arit is nearer far.
What a nive sir, outfut to be:
Per a circly girl's proud and vain,
And she does just what she wants to do,
Because she knows she can;
Ah, jes?
Because she knows she can.

Oh, I would wel could I find a girl who quite combines the wrace
Of a nonley maiden's honest heart
With a cretty woman's face.
To win this prize! would search for aye.
But, slas, I cear I shan!!
I hough I explore the whole world o er,
I know tull well I can't. Alas.
And slack : I know I can't.

—St. Louis Republic.

Identity. (With applicates to T. R. Aldrich.) Somewhere in the farmyard, wast and lonely. The moonlight wan of a Winter night Shone through skeeton shapes that only Shrank from each other in Serie affight. With epebalis gleaming in midnight murky.

Spake these spirits from flesh flung loose:

"I am the wrath of the Christmas turkey!"

"I am the ghost of the New Year's goose!"

"Acce,

Too Much. She is the fairest of all girls—
ivi I must go away,
For she her rich-toned voice unfurls in "Ta-ra boom de sy." —Juage.

A perpetual smile lasts too long, and a continuous grimace loses its borror. When Poussin painted Arcadia, he was careful not to in the picture without contrast. He showed sentence from a just Judge in considera- them going gayly along the charming country tion of his plea of guilty, and if he had road, all bedecked with flowers, but suddenly arrested in their joy by the sight of a tomb with its suggestions of death. There was the contrast. Every picture to leave a lasting impression must deal in some way or other with contrast. Contrast is the spice of life. It is everything.

entire cast, with perhaps two trivial exceptions is made up of male rough and femicine evening until the midnight hour noticed an illustration, and cover it with chamols on adventuresses. The leading feminine role is old, stooping woman sitting at the corner of which may be couched a similar border in so utterly had that all interest in her is pro- One Hundred and Ninth street and Third gold; also across the centre the word BRANCH OFFICES:

have so many gifts been distributed in The Board of Police-Justices are to hold hibited. The audience is neither pleased when she was clad in rags. These, together between 31st and 32d sta. New York.

between 31st and 32d sta. New York.

generosity and carnest co-operation of committee, appointed at a former is thwarted. As for the hero-or villain, with her pale, sad face, which bore the same of the pale, sad face, which bore whatever he is he is a very remarkable per traces of one-time reauty, moved many those who were our colaborers in the meeting, will report on the question of whatever he is he is a very remarkable per- traces of one-time beauty, moved many adopting a rule confining the serving of son (person is a splendid word for him; he is a pedestrian to slacken his pace long These Christmas trees are now an marrants to court officers and detectives, not a man and he is not a gentleman). He is enough to drop a coin into the little tin cup natitution in the three cities. They excent where otherwise provided by ex-

Miss Carrie Turner, who played the leading part, was extremely effective, although at times the monotony of her voice trritates. Wild Western train robbers have much Miss Elita Proctor Otis contributed a clever little character sketch and wore some amuslow, she seemed to be leaning over a balcony, while another appeared to be made up of the contents of a milliner's store thrown on comings of Edgar L. Davenport, who is some-

It is not exactly easy to understand why the present manta for "Le Demi-Monde rages so epidemically in the theatres. Wyndedly high-class exponents of freebooting ham started the rage in London, and the others are probably following him blindly because they have nowhere else to go. ALAN DALE.

OPENING THE PARISH HOUSE.

The Btructure Dedicated to the Memory of Emily Bruce Lines. The formal opening and dedication of the mily Bruce Lines Memorial Parish House of the Church of the Beloved Dischele, which has just been completed at 67 East Eightyninth street, will take place this evening.

The house is a three-story building of brown-stone and mottle brick. The stone work is carved, and in the centre of the .ront there is a handsome Gothic window. On the wall of the vestibule is a brass tablet bearing Of Double-Prices for their Coal, this inscription :

For the Blory of God and the Welfare of His People this Parish House is Erreted in Laring Memory of Emily Bruce Lines. Passes from Death unto Life. Her Works do Rollow Her.

The building is finished in oak and pine, and contains lecture, meeting and guild rooms, offices for the clergy, apartments for the assistant minister and the janitor, a manasium, a smoking and billiard room and roof garden, and is elegantly jurnished throughout.

With the land on which it stands the property is worth $40,000, the building costing $28,000, of which Miss Caroline Tallman who built the church and rectory and en nowed them, contributed $22,000.

One Mar's Persimism. "The pessimism of some men is simply astounding," said a visitor to a St. Louis who actually insulted, another man for with a traveler from Chicago, who couldn't "A devilish, bright out knockabout sort a hack driver. of a chap named Whittaker was one day sitting on the veranda of a country hotel in age to take me to Parker's ? It is computed that a flea can jump upward a a Southwestern town chatting with a num ber of friends. Some one happened to call man, with a Harvard accent him by name, and an old white whiskered "Sure?"

centleman standing near by came waltzing up to the crowd, and nolding out his hand to Whittaker said; ". Is your name Whittaker?" " 'Yes,' was the reply.

Salesville, Ark ?" ... Yes.' again.

" Well, don't you remember the time yo fell off a flatboat into the river about twen'y years ago, and how you'd at get drowned t I hadn't dived in and saved you?"

···Yes, Whittaker said, ·1 do, you old fool. What good did it do? five been playing poker for twenty years and never won cent. I've been kicked and cuffed ver fourteen States, and I'm out of job now, Good-by.' And the really indigin excellent condition?' nant Whittaker stumped off down the stepleaving, his innocent benefactor aghast with surprise."

The F. & M.

Schaefer Special Holiday A SPOONFUL of Royal will go fur-A ther than a spoonful of any other baking powder because it is the purest.

PATHETIC END OF A BEGGAR.

Old and Ragged, She Turned an Organ on Third Avenue.

Once a Benuty, Now a Candidate for l'otter's Field.

In "The Crust of Society," a play adapted The police of the One Hundred and Twenty. from the "Demi-Monde" of Dumas, and sixth street station-house have in their pospresented last night at the Union Square session an eld, small organ from which the of the latter in our jails. They spent Theatre, the cynteism of the playwright, faculty to discourse music has long ago de-Never have The Evening World's their Christmas Day in prison and are keen and cutting us it is, loses its force, be- parted, but which, by its very muteness, tells heavy Japanese gold thread. Cover the Christmas festivals for the poor children not likely to be restored to their families cause there is nothing eise in the play. The

by the proposed rule.

An amateur police, as experience has proved, leads to all sorts of rascalities, and the movement of the Police Justices is in the right direction.

While indignant man is declaring that the Harlem River must not be closed to navigation. Dame Nature quietly goes to any more and the movement of the Police Justices.

While indignant man is declaring that the Harlem River must not be closed to navigation. Dame Nature quietly goes to any more and the mother episodes that are always so effective in Paris. Noth-the woman made no reply. Her hand grasped the organ."

The woman made no reply. Her hand grasped the organ handle, but did not turn to shoulder. The policeman haid his hand gently on her shoulder. The policeman haid his hand gently on her shoulder. The policeman haid his hand gently on her shoulder. The policeman haid his hand gently on her shoulder. The policeman haid his hand gently on her shoulder. The body is the organ."

The woman made no reply. Her hand grasped the organ."

The simply sat there and never stirred.

The policeman haid his hand gently on her shoulder. The body rell back ward upon the woman's face the policeman haid his hand gently on her shoulder. The body is the simply sat there and never stirred.

The policeman haid his hand gently on her shoulder. The body rell or the woman made no reply. Her hand grasped the organ."

The woman made no reply. Her hand grasped the organ."

The simply sat there and never stirred.

The policeman haid his hand gently on her shoulder. The body rell or or the woman is face the organ."

The woman made no reply. Her hand grasped the organ."

The simply sat there and never stirred.

The policeman haid his hand gently on her shoulder. The body rell or or the woman is face the organ."

The woman made no reply. Her hand grasped the organ."

The woman made no reply. Her hand grasped the organ."

The story or "The victor or a but of or any proved the organ."

The body any made in the organ."

The body any made in the organ."

The body any made in

THE CHRISTMAS-TREE FUND.

Subscriptions Increase the Total to $3,447.48. The following are a few subscriptions t THE EVENING WORLD Christmas-Tree Fund. silk very neatly a small triangle of the pays high compliments to each wife.

	received for the Fund to date is $3,44
d	Previously acknowledged	e3, 403, f
j	J. II. Duriand	25.
į	K. W	5.
Į	Kenneth Deshorough	3.
	A fdie Anderson, Westfield, N. J	1.
	Dorothy	1.0
	Julius Lachinski	1.
	8. V. P	1.
	David C. Biles	1.
ı	Harry and Heten
ı	Annie Folger, 242 East Fifty-second
1	stract	1.
	I. M	1.
	Baby
1	Fmily Bradley, Paterson, N. J	10
1	Three Lattle Girls, Jersey City
	S A. for three-year-old boy
١	H. D. A
	Cash
	Baby, 1046 Second avenue
	Callie Denton
	Simeon Gallagher, Brooklyn
ď	Rose, Mary and David Sheridan
	J. C. M.
	Eddin Geyer, 345 West Forty-fourth
í	Sorry So Late
ò	Edward Everett Hicks	1
	Richard F. McGes, Brooklyn

MERRY X-MAS, INDEED!

by George! World makes me young again, With seven colossal X-mas trees Why talk to me of Cosmos Fame Continents, flemispheres (and seas), Booming " Cold-Winter Charities!" Always Scooping this Scooping-Beat (Out-Gifting all the Gifts in Town) Makes Evening World score World Re nown, With X-mas Tree in Every Street! Thirty-nee Thousand Little Feet Wearing Gitts never made by Crown! Compare Coal-Baron's Zero-G1.t Freezing to Death (for " Shy lock's Toll ")

Starving and Freezing Labor-Thrift! Wonte has Out X-mass'd Every One, Out Gifting Emptre City Press In Presents Rainboad from the Sun Magnificent X-mass Success! In giving Credit where 'tis Due, Let me for Tots Give World loud cheers. out Ranking Nation's X-mas Peers, Discounting Both Old World and New!

GEO. FRANCIS TRAIN. English as She Is Spoken. "Slang is no good," 'remarked the drumme and a man is clean off his base that monkeys with it." " As to how ?" inquired the hotel clerk ecording to the Detroit Free Press. "Well, this is how," continued the drum Republic reporter. "Why I know a fellow mer. "Two weeks ago I went into Boston saving his life. The way it happened was speak ten words of English, pure and unand cored, till tender, lay them in the dish, defiled. At the railroad station he tackled small cup of the preserved orange syrup. ". say, backle, said he, 'what's the dam

" No damage at all, sir" replied the back ... Outte sure sir, if you go with me. embroidery from many generations, but few

... Then I'll go with you,' and he piled and I took a street car. "At l'arker's the driver opened the door politely and handed him out. " . Are you all right, sir?," he inquired.

" You tet I am, Never was finer." · Had a pleasant drive?" " Bang up " 'Ab, thanks,' and he started into the hotel.

... Two dollars, please, said the driver detaining him. "'I thought there was no damage,' he said in surprise. ". There wasn't, sir. Haven't you just said everything was all right and you were · Yes, but-'-" I understand perfectly, sir,' interrupt ed the driver; 'H you had asked the fare, I should have informed you, but you did not.

I presume that was quite immaterial to you so long as you were delivered at your deati-nation sarely and without damage."

"The slampy man other the goods the point. He handed over his $2, and has since been more careful or his linge."

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Mighest of all in leavening strength. -United States Gov'l Food Report.

Postal Case and Blotter.

Postals" in quaint, irregular letters.

00.00.00

side; or the edges of the two sections may be nails are used they will give sufficient deco-under side of each corner overhand with red chamois. Cut several sheets of red or yellow them under the corners, which will hold them fast, and in the pocket put all the Chop together cold cabbage and cold pota-

Precious Gems of Common Sing.

precious gems are composed of the most common substances. The diamond is the purest form of carbon, and is identical in composiother hand, is nearly pure alumina, a substance found in profusion in every clay bank.

The scientific name for crystallized alumina under this designation are sometimes more valuable than diamonds of the same weight.

The ruby, the sapphire, the oriental emerald

the oriental topaz, the oriental amethyst, the oriental aqua marine, the oriental chry-solite, the hyacinth and other precious stones are all alumina, the varieties of color being caused by inappreciable quantities of metallic

The " Bun " Knot of Hair.

The sweeping changes in the shape of Win ter hats and bonnets have brought about a amount of hair than the majority of women

To Cure Rabbit Sking.

Orange Florentine.

Irish Needlescork.

but incapable Irish girl, said in despair handmail was an accomplished artist with

The Wives of Great Men.

king, singularly free from contention.

Durer's wife was stingy, and in order to in Lamartine married an English lady named

Burch, who, learning that he was poor,

Moore got along well with his wife, in spite of his constant firtation, which, after all, offered to share her fortune with him.

may have been only word deep.

the sewing-room.

character.

oxides.

possess.

10 Is corundum, and the gems comprehended tion with ordinary charcoal without

It is a most singular fact that the most imprisonment and finally succeeded in smug-

To make it first cut a piece of heavy card- gling him out of jail in a trunk.

over the board and near enough the eage to irightful amount of happiness."

form a border draw some conventional design:

Jean Paul Richter married to Jean Paul Elchter married to get a housenow remove the board, and on the chamois keeper, and secured a good one, though jealcouch all the outlines you have drawn with ous of all his movements. Swift married Stella at the remonstrance of friends whom he dared to disoblige, but never lived with her. Budgeus had a wife who copied all his references and did for him the mechanical fashionable girl is striving at present with drudgery of a literary life. Paulina, Seneca's wife, had her own veins opened when he was put to death, but was adornments. saved by doctors. Hen Jonson had a shrew who used to go to he ale room after him and bring him home, scolding all the way.

Correggio married beauty, wealth and happiness. Several of his madonnas have the features of his wife. Fausta, the wife of Constantine the Great. was so bad that the Emperor had her smoth- to take no chances."

ered in a hot bath.

Line the back of the smaller board with Italian girl, who made his home ideally per-

Leigh Hunt was happy in his marriage, ough his wife was no cook and a very poo housekeeper. The married life of Lord Nelson was made dark red watered silk, then hold it firmly in fect. its place on the larger board and drive Dr. Sir Hugh Smithson married a Percy through it two small brass nails with orna- helress for love and became Duke of Northmental heads, clinching them on the under umberland.

Verdi married young, winning a charming sewn together with red silk. If the brass and was disappointed on finding she had Van Dyke married a lady for her money ration, except along; the open edge of the none. Milton's wives gave him so much trouble pocket. Faste neatly over the back either red silk or heavy red watered paper. To the that he wrote a treatise advocating divorce.

The domestic relations of both Thackeray blotting paper the necessary size and slip and Dickens were unhappy. Fielding, the novelist, married his maid servant and was miserable.

Steele was happy in both marriages, and

A Cravat Plate.

A neat little device has made its appear toes, heat them with a little fried onion, ance in Paris by which any man can make his season them palatably with salt and pepper, wn cravat with any material he chooses to and either brown or bake the mixture; serve use. The base of the tie is made of thick new atyle of wearing the hair, termed " the cardboard, with appropriate notches for ac bun "- a very descriptive name for the big justing the material round knot of hair which is seen to te the Our illustration she Our illustration shows the various stages fashion. it is worn low, though not so low as of folding that must be followed. The whole the Langtry knot, and demands a larger is exceedingly simple and easily learned. Capt. Cutter's Soldier Wife.

A mong the soldiers' graves in Arlington Cemetery a new mound has been made with a Rabbit skins carefully prepared are useful woman's name on the slab at the head. The for many domestic purposes; they may be woman who sleeps beneath was buried like a "The word "cash" comes from the Chiesmooth board, the fur side undermost, and ing sheet. At the battle of Fort Donelson fasten it down with tinned tacks. Wash it when the regiment under Capt. Cutter were warrior, with the stars and stripes for a windover first with a solution of sait, then dissolve nighting without their colors, the Captain's two and one-half ounces of alum in one plut wile suddenly rushed through the smoke with of warm water, and with a sponge dipped in the flag in one hand and a sword in the other his solution moisten the surface all over: As the rain of lead thickened and she was repeat this every now and then for three ordered to retire to a transport on the river days. When the skin is quite dry take out she raised the stars and stripes again and rethe tacks, and rolling it loosely the wrong mained in the pilot-house in defiance of the way, the hair inside, draw it quickly back-Captain's orders. Since the war Mrs. Cutler ward and forward through a large smooth has devoted her life to the care of veterans ring until it is quite soft; then roll it in the and their families. contrary way of the skin and repeat the Bolled Cider.

Boll new sweet elder steadily until it is reduced one-helf in quantity, removing all Line a deep pie-dish with nice flaky paste, steam half a dozen apples, peeled, quartered scum as it rises; cool and bottle it, sealing the corks; a mould may form on the top of slice two preserved oranges in thin rings, lay the elder if it is kept a long time, but that them over the apples and pour over all a will not impair its quality

A Daily " Quiet Bour."

A paper recently read at a conference fuming it with tar of birch. women was on " Quiet Hours," and set forth The women of some portions of Ireland the importance of " reflection as an element inherit unusual skill in fine hand-sewing and of true activity," urging the avoldance of the error of looking on action as the only form of of them on coming to this country make use of their skill. A lady, who had suffered much work. "We all need ripening hours," says the writer. "We cannot give out what w rom the blunders and mishaps of a willing have not taken: we cannot comfort if we have not ourselves been comforted." What can you do, Mary?" "And, sure," said the girl, with tears in her eyes, "it's advice is specially pertinent to the busy women of the day, who in their new-found embroidery I can do, marm, and do it to opportunities have developed a zeal that is please both yer eye and yer heart." The keeping them at almost ceaseless work. If mistress permitted her to try some fine emsuch could realize that rest is another form broldery on silk, quite expecting it would be of work and calm thought a valuable preparruined, and discovered that her unlucky ation for activity a double plessing would be gained for them. the needle, and Mary was soon transferred to

Prawns and shrimps telong to the sam family. The former are larger and a little Racine was so disgusted with the failure of one of his plays that he determined to be. stronger flavored. They come to the Northto take a wife instead, He did so and never and shelled. Boil two quarts of live prawns regretted it. thirty minutes, drain and break away the have drawn a square divided into thirty-air abel's. Put two ounces of butter in a frying-Cate married a poor girl that she might be completely dependent upon him and found pan; when very hot add a clove of garile and one sliced apple ; brown, take out the garlic ner as troublesome as though she were an and add a dessert spoontul of curry powder mixed with a intle water. Next add half : Clarendon was married to one of the most pint of soup stock and half a teaspoonful o noble women of history, and pays frequent flour, the juice of nail a lemon with a lump of ribute in his writings to her grandeur of sugar dissoived in it. Four this over the prawns and cover the top with crumbs. Bake George III., albeit a little henpecked, was a until trown. odel husband, and his domestic life was, for Jachtenable Necklaces. A pretty throat is far more beautiful when its curves are refleved by the slender lines of a gold chain, now so much in vogue.

crease the family resources kept him so steadily at work that his health gave way. stricted in their choice of jewelry, the circlets heavy lines in the diagram. The light line of turquoises, with pearls, are especially in the diagram represent the pencil lines liked; sometimes circlets of enamelled You will find that you have drawn eight le flowers, white violets or marguerites are ters, of which four will be capital L's and four genuine roses. This stone is known atthe clivine and as the chrysolite; it is a pic beard eight inches wide by twelve long, or Heine had so warm a regard for his wife de fantaisie and comes from India and Egypt larger if you prefer. Stretch red chamols skin that he wrote "For eight years I have had a lt has lovely yellow lights and is beautiful. when combined with clear white diamon The most charming of the lace pins worn no

Collecting Buckles.

Once it was fans, again it was spoons, b just at this moment it is the proper caper ; collect buckles. They are worn in all sor of possible and impossible places, and each all the other girls of her acquaintance as to who shall have the greatest number of thes Liver and Kidney Dishes.

"I never permit either liver or kidner dishes on my table," said a physician. "It the animal from which they are taken has any sort of constitutional taint it will be present in one or the other of these vital parts. Its flesh may be wholesome while the liver or kidneys will be diseased, and I pref

It is further suggested that neither shou Alexander and Julius Casar were both ac-customed to whip their wives on the slightest strong salt water, and in the case of the kidneys it is well to leave them over night is this.

> Cabbage Pudding. After carefully washing a head of cabbage boll it just tender in plenty of bolling saite water, drain and chop it a little, with a cupful of any cold meat. While the cabbage boiling fry a cupful of bread crumbs in tw tablespoonfuls of shortening, and when the are brown moisten them with boiling water and season them with salt and pepper. Mix these ingredients, season them palatably, pu them into a buttered earthen dish and bake the pudding for about a half hour; serve hot Roaches.

The best known way to rid your pantry and cupboard shelves of the pents known a water-bugs or cockroaches is to scrub th shelves, sink and floors weekly with scaldi-water and soap, then apply your powder dusting thoroughly into cracks and crevit

where the vermin are wont to congregate

This treatment if persevered in will no don have the desired effect.

To Wash Woollen Shawle. Scrape one pound of soap, boll it down t sufficient water; when cooling beat it with the hand—it will be a sort of jelly; add three tablespoonsful of spirits of turpentine and one of spirits of hartshorn. Wash the articles well in it, then rinse in cool water until a the soap is taken off, then in sait and water Fold between two sheets, taking care not t allow two folds of the article washed to come together. Iron with a slightly warmed from shawls done in this way look like new. Sai is to be used only where there are delicant colors that may run.

Use for this dish samp and dried cranberry ans, soaking both over night in cold water in separate bowls. Boll equal quantities each in plenty of saited water until they are perfectly tender, then drain them, mix them season them palatably with salt, pepper and butter and serve them hot. Calendar New Year's Cards. Calendars, small and big, and of all degre of elaborateness in ornamentation, are to recognized proper New Year's card. In the city it is quite the thing among fashional to send one's carriage around on the day aft New Year's, leaving these pretty and use souvenirs of the season. Naturally, women much in the swim get fairly "snow under" with them, but it is not difficult pass the trilles on to less favored friends aft every apartment in the house has been du provided.

The Word Cash. The word "cash" comes from the Chiness. se use, with a square hole in the middl

Sair is an important article of food, and i obtained chiefly from the mineral kingdon In the human body it is an ingredient of a domestic animals show that the withdraws of sait from their food not only makes the hides rough and causes the hair to fail ou but also interferes with the proper digestiof food. If it is withheld persistently the shment and die of starvation. It shows t what an important element sait is in ou Worth Remembering. Equal proportions of alum and resin wil keep puste from moulding. Barneng the abdomen with alcohol is an ex cellent remosy for diarrhoa. Leather may be kept from moulding by pe become entirely unable to appropriate not

Wood ashes, very finely stited, are good for scouring knives and tinware.

" The Seven Ages." At a recent Shakespearian festival, which was a bazuar and fair, the stalls were arranged to represent the "Seven Ages of Man." "Infancy," "Youth." "Young Man hood and Womanhood," Maturity," Advancing Age," "Old Age " were the names of the booths outlined in foliage text over each one. Wares suited to the age repres booth, which was presided over by pretty girls and a chaperon Entertaining Geometrical Puzzle. Take a ruler and draw with a pencil on a sheet of white cardboard seven parallel lines at equal distances one from the other.

For the throats of young girls, who are re- a pair of scissors and draw with ink the Nothing is prettier than the period for the up and ask some of your young or old triess The wife of Grotius shared her husband's older sisters, who are no longer buds, but to reform the original squares.